

INFLUENCE OF WOMEN IS ON RISE IN JAPAN

Tobacco Habit Among Them Is Being Abolished
Latest Styles Cause Native Dress Changes

HONOLULU, T. H., Oct. 11.—A unique feature of the gradual rise of women's influence in Japan, until their position now is slowly approximating that of American and British women, is that they are giving up smoking. Just at the time when great comment has arisen over the increase of smoking among their sisters in America and England, according to Dr. T. H. Haden, dean of the theological department of Kwunsei Gakuin, a mission college in Japan who attended sessions here of the Pan-Pacific Educational conference, one of the empire's representatives.

"Formerly all classes of women in Japan smoked in public as well as in their homes," Dr. Haden said. "The influence of the West has almost stopped this custom although it is to the interest of the government to foster it, as tobacco is a government monopoly."

Haden said that a new word for home—"katei"—has been coined in Japan to express the meaning and idea of home life in western civilization. It is being learned by the Japanese.

The changing condition of Japanese women is only begun, but it is proceeding with a rapidity and intensity which are very significant and hopeful," he said. "The Japanese language had a word expressing house and household, but they had no conception of home life in the occidental sense where women are on an equal footing with men. This is now expressed by 'katei' with the new appreciation of home as a thing to be shared by husband and wife and the gradual rise of the Japanese woman to the position of their American and British sisters."

City Outgrows Country. Haden said that the city population of Japan is increasing thirteen times as fast as that of the country, due to the change of industry from agriculture to manufacturing. More than 1,000,000 are engaged in factory work and in excess of half of these are under 25 years of age, he said.

A significant and interesting indication of the change in progress in Japan is the fact that while the Japanese women retain the kimono as their chief attire, they have discarded the obi—the folded square of cloth worn "back"—and are wearing their kimono many of the women now wear a full divided skirt, which ties around the waist with a wide sash and hanging at the side, Dr. Haden said. "Many of them also wear shoes instead of their sandals."

"Divorce laws also have been revised in accordance with other regulations. Formerly a man could send his wife back to her parents without any explanation. This act constituted legal freedom for him. Now he can only divorce her for infidelity or by agreement with her. The woman as yet has no recourse against the infidelity of her husband, not even though he bring a concubine into the home as frequently has been done."

"The example of American, their homes and schools in Japan, gradually has altered the hearts and feelings of the Japanese until they have been induced to effect these changes."

MAKE START ON OIL PLANTATION

Two Thousand Trees Turned Over

HONOLULU, T. H., Oct. 10.—A start has been made here on the chaunmooga plantation which is intended to increase the chaunmooga oil production in order that an adequate supply might be furnished to the territory and used in the treatment of leprosy in accordance with the method evolved by Dr. Arthur J. Dean, president of the University of Hawaii, which has succeeded in eradicating the disease in numerous cases.

Two thousand chaunmooga trees have been turned over to the territorial board of agriculture and forestry by the experimental station of the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' association and the territory has valued 2,000 more. These will be planted at Waihole, this island by Charles B. Judd, superintendent of forestry and will be the nucleus of the plantation.

The progress of the application of the Dean method at the Kalahele leprosy station here, in fourteen and a half months ending on March 15 last, ninety-four of the 148 patients had been paroled from the station on recommendation of the attending doctors that the disease had been arrested to such an extent that it no longer is considered dangerous in their cases. It is related in a pamphlet written here recently by Dr. Dean and Dr. J. T. McDonald of the United States Public Health Service.

The pamphlet published by the American medical association said that there had been a well-defined development not only in method but also in the eradication of the disease in the fields of chaunmooga oil.

"As has been pointed out, there is no way of demonstrating that any person has been cured absolutely of leprosy but the 94 patients who have been paroled are believed to be free from the disease," the pamphlet said. "Up to the present time no one of the patients paroled since Oct. 1, 1913, has shown a recurrence of the disease. It is probably to be expected that occasional cases will show recurrence and have to return for a second treatment. It is believed, however, that the percentage of such returns is going to be low. It would appear that we have methods in hand for holding in check the disease under control."

OBSOLETE SHIPS ARE HELD JUNK

Wisconsin, Missouri and Maine to Be Sold

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 10.—Three obsolete battleships, a cruiser and two monitors, will be sold as junk at the Philadelphia Navy Yard.

The vessels are the battleships Maine, Missouri and Wisconsin, the Cruiser Columbia and the monitors Ozark and Tanager. They represent an aggregate tonnage of 63,000. All stores and machinery worth salvaging will be removed before the sale.

The battleships and monitors carried main batteries of 12-inch guns now discarded, obsolete as effective fighting units, though they all served on active duty during the war as station or training ships. The cruiser Columbia, one of the fastest warships in the Spanish-American war, was used on patrol and convoy duty.

The Maine and Missouri were commissioned in 1901. The Maine replaced the old Maine blown up in Havana Harbor in 1898.

The Wisconsin went into commission in 1907 with the North Pacific squadron. She was turned out by the Union Iron Works on the Pacific coast. The monitors Tanager and Ozark went into commission in 1900.

The survivors of the wreck: the message said, were fired upon by bandits, who later captured them and took them to a forest, where they were all robbed and where fifteen of them were shot and killed.

CLAIM JUROR NOT ASLEEP AT TRIAL OF LEE

Prosecution Makes Its Affidavits Before Court Case Is Taken Under Advisement Until Thursday

Counter-affidavit tending to show that Edward Pickett, a member of the jury which convicted Lee, was not asleep, is filed by the defense, during the reading of instructions at the trial, were offered by District Attorney L. W. Gearhart yesterday at the argument of a motion for a new trial for Lee. After hearing arguments by defense attorneys, Judge S. J. Strother, who presided at the trial, took the motion under advisement until Thursday afternoon.

In making their motion for a new trial, defense attorneys M. E. Harris, Herbert McDowell and R. G. Retailer, contended that Pickett was asleep during the reading of instructions. They presented affidavits signed by themselves to the effect that Pickett was asleep and also one of a spectator in the court room, C. E. Mann, who states that he saw the juror nodding as though asleep, but that he could not definitely state that he was.

In affidavits presented by District Attorney Gearhart and O. L. Everts, it is claimed that the juror was not asleep. They also point out that Pickett is 36 miles from civilization on a hunting trip and that he could not be reached for an affidavit. It is that distance from the nearest automobile road, and it is necessary to walk to his camping place, the affidavits state.

Three other affidavits presented by the district attorney and signed by C. G. Miller, foreman of the jury, Harry E. Crane and C. H. Jensen, jurors, state that they did not see Pickett nodding or asleep. Those men were the nearest to Pickett during the trial.

It is also contended by the prosecution that Judge Strother was directly in front of Pickett and could have observed him had he been asleep.

Another ground on which the new trial is asked is that the verdict is contrary to evidence. Points brought out under that head are: that the defendant is not charged with the killing, that the defendant was not present at the time of the homicide.

It was charged by the prosecution that Lee, a Chinese, and his associate, the defendant, had conspired to kill the victim. The defense states that the only evidence tending to show that fact was the night of the killing and the defendant's statement, "All right, boys, get your guns and shoot the Bing Konga."

It was also charged that there was no mention of this statement in the indictment. The defense states that the statement was made by the defendant in the presence of the jury and that it was not necessary for him to make any statement.

Harris cited several remarks by the district attorney during argument as prejudicial.

In speaking of the prejudice of the jury, Harris stated, "This is not the first time that conditions similar to this have developed, but fortunately for the orderly administration of law and justice, careful judges have not hesitated to interpose and to thwart and nullify this mob spirit."

Affidavits signed by S. A. Mosk and Henry Hall, police officers, were also presented by the defense. In these affidavits, they state that they asked George Haw, a prosecution witness, how it was that he was not shot the night George Lee was killed. To this he replied, they state, that he was not there but that "he" had gone home five minutes before it had happened. This was presented under the head of new evidence but had already been introduced at the trial.

Judge Strother announced that he was convinced that the facts and the law in the case and informed District Attorney Gearhart that it was not necessary for him to make any statement.

CHARGE MILK IN ICE CREAM NOT STANDARD

Grade A Producers of Fresno Say It Does Not Pass Test Want Same Inspection As Is Applied to City Supply

The ice cream factories are shipping into Fresno unsupervised milk and cream from points 25 to 30 miles distant, for the reason that they can buy this inferior product for less than the city inspected milk can be produced.

This is the principal grievance set forth in the complaint of the Grade A Milk Producers of Fresno filed with the board of health and which has been decided to consider at a meeting called for the purpose. The meeting will probably be held the latter part of this week. Dr. C. Mathewson, city health officer, said yesterday.

The producers have asked the city, "In justice to the producers of clean inspected milk and to the consuming public of Fresno," to put ice cream milk and cream under city inspection with Grade A milk and cream.

Claim Supply Not Regulated
"Our Fresno city ordinance, No. 351, has set the ice cream supply under inspection, except that in Section 1, Paragraph 1, the milk inspector is empowered to enforce the laws of the state relating to dairy products in Fresno," says the complaint of the milk producers. The producers also point out that the state law reads as follows:

"It shall further be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to sell or exchange, or offer for sale or exchange, for human consumption, any ice cream into the composition of which any milk enters other than that permitted in this section of this act, to be sold at retail for human consumption."

"We suggest that you incorporate this clause of Section 1 of the state law into your ordinance," is the recommendation of the milkmen's association.

The producers also charge in their complaint filed with the board of health that "according to the grades of milk defined in the state law, this ice cream milk falls into the classification of milk unfit for human consumption."

The milkmen claim that the ice cream manufacturers have used as a loophole the provision of the State law that permits the use of milk for human consumption to be used for industrial purposes, provided it is heated to a higher temperature than necessary for pasteurization and delivered in distinctive containers plainly marked with the words "not suitable for human consumption."

The concluding paragraph of the milkmen's complaint says: "The Fresno ordinance, No. 351, does not permit the sale of any milk, pasteurized with a score of 60 per cent for the dairy, and a bacteria count not to exceed 100,000 for the milk before pasteurization. We sincerely hope and advise that no city inspection for a less quality of milk for such an use would be certain to lower the standard of all Grade A milk products, for Grade A producers cannot keep up their present standards and compete with a lower grade of milk."

"We know well enough that there are none of the members of your honorable board of health who will recommend to the people of Fresno, or who enter to consume in the form of ice cream a less pure product than that now sold in Fresno as Grade A milk."

The statement by the milk producers is signed by Fred W. Hanson. The whole problem constitutes a question, according to Dr. Mathewson, yesterday he said: "I want to be absolutely fair, and

Christmas Seals Received in State

The 1921 Christmas seal designed by George V. Curtis, American artist, has reached California and is now being distributed by the California Tuberculosis Association.

Forty-five million seals have been received and twenty million have already been sent to the local associations.

The amount of money and suffering that these tiny messengers of health have been able to alleviate is beyond description, said Mrs. Lybion Thompson, while the state and counties have been carrying on the work in the hospitals, the state and local tuberculosis associations have been adding new weapons in the fight against such a deadly enemy.

Teamwork like this, she said, is what has brought about the tremendous drop in the death rate from tuberculosis in this state.

HI-Y DELEGATES ARE SELECTED
Name 20 to Represent Fresno Club

Twenty members of the Hi-Y club of the Fresno high school will represent the delegation from Fresno at the annual meeting of all Hi-Y clubs in the United States at Stockton, October 28, 29 and 30, according to an announcement by George A. Forbes, secretary of the local Young Men's Christian Association.

Following are the members who will represent the Fresno club: Donald Young, Roy Newman, Joe Carroll, Robert LaRue, Galt Fletcher, Charles Norton, Albert Mitchell, Ray Griffith, Joseph Hudson, Alfred Serrin, Albert Green, Edie Irvine, Dick Baldwin, Alton Williams, Don Brown, Tom Wright, James Shelburn and Don Porter. A meeting of the local club will be held the latter part of this week to organize the delegation.

The annual convention will open at 2:30 o'clock, Friday afternoon, October 28, and will close on Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. The principal speakers of the convention will be Harry Rimmer, of Chicago; Stephen Mark of the University of California; and Chinese students, and Herbert Brown of South America.

They are dealing with a most important matter. An attitude is that we are dealing with a manufactured article under the state law, and that these ice cream factories of Fresno have to compete with all other factories of the state. Fresno industry needs some protection, but at the same time, I am not in favor of letting down the bars for any milk used by the public, whether it is used in ice cream or for any other purpose.

"Freezing makes no difference. When the frozen cream is taken from the stomach and melts any injurious bacteria is freed. They do not poisonize their milk to a higher degree and longer than pasteurization plants where the milk is to be used for human consumption. The question is one of cleanliness. Dirt in milk is always dirt, no matter what you do."

"They do not produce that milk under the same conditions as Grade A raw milk is produced. They have state regulations, but those do not compare with the regulations governing the dairies supplying milk to the city of Fresno."

ASKS PROBATION
A. Pollett yesterday pleaded guilty to a charge of driving an automobile while intoxicated at his arraignment before Judge Strother in the superior court by Deputy District Attorney Critchton. He entered a request for probation and the case was referred to the probation officer for a report.

Insufficient evidence caused these selling charges to be dismissed against Dick Lee.

The seventh annual convention of the boys' agricultural club of California will be held at the university farm at Davis from October 20 to 22 according to an announcement by W. E. Carlson, assistant club leader of the state agricultural extension service. Boys entitled to attend this convention are the winners of all district school and county club contests. They will be accompanied by the members of the high school boys' clubs who have done the best work. It is estimated that between 40 and 50 boys will attend the convention, with probably fifty representing Fresno county.

Demonstration in hog management, dairy management, a veterinary demonstration, poultry raising, fruit decay and the irrigation and orchard management will be on the program for the convention. High school pupils present at the convention will compete in judging contests in Poland China pigs, ewes, white leghorn hens, and steers. The winners in the stock judging will receive cups.

The boys from Fresno county attending the convention are headed by A. S. Gillette to get in touch with him to complete arrangements for transportation and meals. They will leave the farm advisers' office in the chamber of commerce building Thursday, October 20, at 8 A. M.

EIGHT CRIMINAL CASES ARE HEARD

Three Plead Guilty To Charges

Eight criminal cases were heard yesterday afternoon by Judge S. L. Strout. The defendants, who were prosecuted by Deputy District Attorney Philip Conley, were:

Joe Layla, accused of violating the Wythe local option law. Time to plead to the charge was set for Thursday.

C. Pajano, pleaded guilty to a charge of violating the liquor ordinance by selling intoxicating liquor in a licensed territory and was sentenced to pay a fine of $300.

A charge of violating the Wythe local option law was dismissed against Vincent J. Forte on the motion of the district attorney because of insufficient evidence.

A plea of guilty was entered by John Stern to a charge of adultery. Stern requested probation and the matter was referred to the probation officer for a report to be returned on October 25.

Ernest Russell, who was arrested yesterday on a similar charge, also pleaded guilty and entered a request for probation.

John Tigges pleaded not guilty to a charge of failure to provide for support and the case was continued without date. According to statements by the defendant, the arrest was made after an action for divorce had been brought by Tigges' wife and temporary alimony was awarded by Judge W. C. Wiley.

Riggs appealed the order of the court on the grounds that the court lacked jurisdiction in ordering the payment of alimony. Riggs was released on $500 bond.

Russell Leach, accused of burglary, pleaded guilty to the charge and requested probation. He was charged with having entered a pump house near Sanger on July 17 with the intent to commit robbery.

A bench warrant was issued for the arrest of Fred King, who was accused jointly with Leach of the crime of burglary. Both cases were continued until October 25.

E. U. Hurler was arraigned on charges of issuing bank checks without sufficient funds. He requested time to plead on the grounds that he did not have funds to employ an attorney and that he had not received money from his home in Florida since he had returned.

Hurler is accused of having issued checks in the amount of $10.23, to Wilson in the sum of $10, and to the Valley Grill in the sum of $10. All three checks were issued on September 2. The case was continued until October 18.

Urge Payment of Pledges to Y.W.C.A.

In order that work may be started on the new activities building of the Young Woman's Christian Association, it is urged that Y.W.C.A. members who subscribed to the building fund pay their pledges as soon as possible.

Miss Maude Wolff, general secretary of the Y. W. C. A. stated yesterday that never before in the history of the association will be they be so much in need of activities and a place to have activities as this coming year.

With the opening of the new home building, the girls residing there are given a place for home recreation and parties, but with the great increasing demand of the many girls in Fresno for organized club programs, classes, gymnasium, etc., it is impossible to carry on the work in the central building on Van Ness because of the crowded conditions and poor equipment.

Glass Is Director of Peach Company

William Glass was elected a director of the California Peach and Fig Growers yesterday to fill the vacancy on the board created by the resignation of J. C. Finkner several months ago.

Mr. Glass was the first president of the organization, and did more than any one man to make possible the Peach association, said General Manager J. P. Nilsen yesterday.

"He is a thorough cooper, and is familiar with affairs of the association, having served in some of the capacity ever since the organization was formed."

The directors approved an appropriation of $125,000 to be used for advertising purposes during the coming year. This is the same appropriation allowed by the board for the past year's advertising.

POLICE COURT NOTES. Mike Brown was fined $500 by Police Judge Herbert P. Briggs yesterday after being arraigned on possession and getting liquor charges. He was arrested Saturday night by Captain Wickstrom, Lieutenant Shum, and Inspectors Nichols and Truesdell.

H. C. Harrison, 34, Hadden, and Ray Silva were each fined $15 when arraigned on speeding charges. They were cited into court by Traffic Officer S. A. Meek. A third man was fined $10 on a similar charge made by Officer Roschinger.

D. Pagan, charged with blocking traffic, was fined $10 yesterday. Battery charges against Mike Plummer were dismissed yesterday. Plummer was recently arrested by Inspectors Nichols and Truesdell.

Ten automobile registration violators were fined $5 each.

Others who have worn clothing which they wish to donate may bring it to courthouse park, Arthur Warren, director of the drive for this district announced yesterday.

The clothing received will be sorted, baled and sent on its way to assist sufferers in the Near East, Warren said.

Raisin Company in Twenty-First Suit

Another suit to gain possession of a raisin crop was brought yesterday by the California Associated Raisin Company against Manuel N. S. Vilchis. The complaint alleges that the defendant contracted with the plaintiff for the sale of raisin crops but that he has refused to make delivery.

Twenty-one suits of this nature have been filed by the raisin company within the past month.

Automobile Owner Sues for Damages

The Bellevue Garage was made defendant in a suit for $500 damages brought yesterday in the superior court by P. W. Brigham through Attorney S. A. Snyder.

The complaint alleges that Brigham took his car to the garage to have some repairs done at a stipulated price of $150. When he called for the car, the complaint states, he tendered the money but was refused delivery on the car.

$50 Per Month Is Given Mrs. Shannon

Judge J. E. Woolley yesterday awarded Alice Shannon $50 a month alimony pending the hearing of her divorce action against George P. Shannon of Selma. The complaint for divorce alleges that Shannon sent his wife to Fresno the day following their marriage, and that he has since refused to join her.

In an answer and cross complaint, Shannon denies the allegations set forth in his wife's complaint, and asks that he be given the divorce on the grounds of desertion.

San Franciscan Opens Bankers' Annual Meeting

Output of Finished Goods Smaller Than Year Ago

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 11.—There is nothing in either the domestic or the foreign situation to give rise to the pessimistic conclusion that the world is sliding straight to ruin, John S. Drum, banker of San Francisco, told the American Bankers' Association, of which he is president, at the opening here yesterday of its forty-seventh annual convention.

"Rational examination of our condition today," he said, "must prove to the greatest doubter that our problems are not insurmountable. The great natural forces are working to remedy." Reports from more than a thousand bankers were the basis, he said, of his subject today.

"Our situation today," he said, "is a country-wide economic survey." In part it follows: "The output of finished goods throughout the country is considerably smaller than it was a year ago, and considerably smaller than it was six months ago. There is a surplus of manufactured commodities in the hands of the producers. A progressive decline in the costs of manufacturing has taken place during the year. In industry, as a whole, the costs of materials, labor and construction have declined. In the order named, increased efficiency of labor has been the natural result of unemployment, on a large scale, but the efficiency of men in the building trades in the country as a whole has not decreased, although there are exceptions to this."

"Taxation in industrial sections has either increased or remained stationary during the year; in no case is a decrease reported. Wholesale prices of manufactured goods have decreased steadily throughout the year. Retail prices, on the whole, also have declined steadily, although not in the same proportion as wholesale prices."

"The great economic states of the South, in the agricultural states, in the middle West and the West, in the western mining and cattle-raising states, in the lumber producing regions of the northwest, and the southeast, there has been a great reduction in buying power; consequently a slackened demand for natural products and a reduction in their value without a commensurate decrease in the price of finished goods."

"In the industrial regions there has been a reduction of production, consequent upon reduced foreign purchasing power. This has resulted in a surplus of manufactured goods at home. This reduction in output of manufactured goods in industrial centers has thrown millions of men out of employment, and consequently has operated to reduce further the national buying power. Thus increased consumption of natural products is prevented, increased purchasing by producers of natural products is prevented, increased employment of labor is prevented and the circle revolves."

"If the world influences in the process of readjustment could be divorced from domestic influences this country would not now be considering problems of readjustment. It would have solved them and would be walking in the old path. But the world is not and cannot be; world influence now and hereafter must have a powerful bearing even on the problems that in former years were considered purely domestic."

"The reports I have received here also show that the three great domestic influences that more than all others are retarding the readjustment of prices and costs are these: "First: Delayed adjustment of cost of labor, which prevents adequate reduction of prices of manufactured commodities and services in the cost of which the cost of labor is the most important factor, and also serves to prevent full employment of labor. This is due both to slow adjustment of compensation of labor and to the continuation of shop rules that impair its efficiency."

"Second: Sustained high costs of transportation, which prevent natural and normal movement of commodities of all kinds to markets."

"Third: Continuation of an unsound system of taxation that diverts working capital from its proper channels and thereby prevents accumulation of working capital that is necessary for increased production, for installation of improved methods of production, and for full employment of labor."

"Common opinion expressed in hundreds of reports that make up this survey, is that when these three deterrent influences have been eliminated the chief obstacles to a restoration of a proper and equitable price equilibrium will have been removed, trading between one group of producers and others will proceed naturally, labor and capital will be more fully employed in productive enterprises."

"In spite of these problems the process of readjustment is going on and there have been undeniable suggestions of at least a modicum of improvement in the last few months. Every step in the process of readjustment is doing its bit to restore the normal value of purchasing power to the entire people, and in the nature of things there is room for anything but confidence in the gradual improvement of business."

"It is well to say that there is nothing in our domestic situation, nor in the international situation that can sustain a pessimistic outlook, or a despondent view that the world has sunk into permanent depression."

"Gradually influences preventing the restoration of stable conditions are disappearing. As prices move toward stability on an equitable basis the full purchasing power that is a necessary prerequisite of normal prosperity is being recovered. Stability, as social and political conditions abroad improve, the wealth wasted in war is replaced and foreign countries are working to rebuild the productive capacity that measures their ability to consume, and as foreign producing increases world markets for American goods are being reopened."

"It is true that many problems, both domestic and foreign, are standing in the way of a restoration of stable conditions and normal domestic and world prosperity. But the forces that are working to solve these problems are irrevocable."

SAY DISPUTE IS SETTLED

Hold Laclede Discoverer of St. Louis

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 10.—A dispute as to who founded St. Louis has been settled, in the opinion of the Missouri Historical Society. The society asserts Pierre Laclede, French fur trader was the founder.

Records of the society show that Laclede directed Auguste Chouteau, 14 years old, to land on the site of the city. Chouteau with a party set out here Feb. 14, 1764, according to the records and Laclede arrived later but was recognized as the founder. Recently a proposition to erect a memorial for Chouteau was discussed. The historical society announced that Henri Chouteau, a direct descendant of Chouteau and a member of the society, offered to pay the cost of the memorial provided the monument would name Chouteau as the founder of the city. The offer was declined.

Then the descendant had an inscription on the tombstone of Chouteau recast. The society declared the original inscription gave the birth of Chouteau as 1760 and said he was sent to Laclede, but in the recasting claimed that the date of birth was changed to 1740, making Chouteau's age when he arrived here 24 and making it appear Chouteau was the founder.

Both sides in the controversy finally agreed upon Father Lawrence J. Kenny, professor of history at St. Louis University, as arbiter in the matter.

Father Kenny, in his findings, verified the position of the society and said authentic records show that Chouteau's mother was born in 1740, and that if Chouteau was born in 1740 as maintained by his descendants, his mother would have been only seven years old when he was born. The arbiter suggested that Chouteau be credited as a co-worker of Laclede.

PROFITEERING STARTS BANKS

New Competing National Banks Planned

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 8.—Bankers who during recent periods of financial stringency have imposed excessive interest rates will "find it pretty nearly useless to protest issuance of charters for new and competing national banks within their territory," Controller of the Currency Crittenger today told the national bank section of the American Bankers' Association convention here. The number of such banks, he added, "is not very great, but it will do no harm for me to say that we have our eyes on these over-cautious ones, and that we are not much disposed to their favor."

"The bank that gets advances from the federal reserve system, and only seeks to increase its profits by that privilege is not doing its part," Mr. Crittenger declared. "You are expected to understand that banks are a convenience and facility to business and that business is the every-ready support of high and yet higher banking profits."

"The other day I saw a report of a day's application for re-discount of paper with one of the federal reserve banks of the West. Notes were offered at maturity for advances of money at 6 per cent. Now, 52 of these notes were at 10 per cent; 21 at 9 per cent; 2 at 8 1/2 per cent; 14 at 8 per cent; 13 at 7 1/2 per cent; 5 at 7 per cent; 2 at 6 1/2 per cent; and 2 at 6 per cent. That is what is meant by bank profiteering."

"An application came for a national bank charter in a small town where there were already a state and national bank. I looked them up, and I learned that they were of the class I call profiteering banks—and charged the new one."

Mr. Crittenger reminded that there was now evidence of "vast improvement in the general business and financial situation," marked by steady liquidation of loans and a persistent increase in the volume of cash available for accommodation of current business.

Touching upon international finance, the controller reviewed his recent proposal for the establishment of an international bank of exchange, backed by the financial power of the United States, to alleviate what he called "the chaos of European currency."

Referring to the steady flow of gold into the United States during the post-war era, he said that it imposed a responsibility upon this country to take a partnership in the reconstruction of the war-torn credit machinery of Europe. In association with bankers of the other nations, he said, the United States could set up such an institution whose operation would tend to stabilize exchanges. In furnishing the gold support for its operation, he asserted, the United States might also fairly urge the removal of tariffs and economic restrictions raised at all the frontiers of new European states, that freedom of commerce might assist the rehabilitation.

LOCATIONS OF BUSINESS NOT TO BE CHANGED

Comprehensive Zoning Ordinance Will Be Drafted
Planning Commission Holds Its First Meeting

The new city planning commission will not disrupt present locations of various lines of business in framing a comprehensive zoning ordinance. This developed yesterday afternoon in the first meeting of the board, but in the future it is proposed to prepare a zoning ordinance that will regulate the location of industries and certain lines of business to certain sections of the city.

The meeting was opened by Mayor Truman G. Hart, who called on the purpose of a planning commission organization, and emphasized the work that had been done by the old planning board. That commission, said the mayor, paved the way for the present board, and the work of the old commission would be of great value in the deliberations of the new body.

The need of a comprehensive zoning ordinance, and the necessity for proceeding with the commission work, was outlined by Louis Gundelinger, secretary of the commission. Secretary Charles Rankin was instructed to write various cities which have zoning ordinances, asking for copies of their regulations.

Commissioner Stranahan was instructed by the commission to draw a new "use map," which is a colored chart of the city showing the classification of business as they now exist.

Members of the commission listened with interest to Miles O. Humphreys, who outlined at length the work of the old commission, and the city plan as adopted by that body.

The next meeting will be held Thursday, October 22, at 2 o'clock.

Present at the meeting were: Mayor Hart, Miles O. Humphreys, Louis Gundelinger, Mrs. W. J. McNulty, Rev. T. T. Clifton, City Attorney J. M. Johnson, William Stranahan, and Secretary Rankin.

Lessors Bring Suit For $25,000 Damages

Suit asking $25,000 damages was brought yesterday in the superior court by Nick Phillips and John Zink against G. V. Say and W. P. Bowen. It is alleged in the complaint that the defendants evicted the plaintiffs from property they had leased.

The plaintiffs claim that they cultivated land on the premises and that the defendants played it up, causing the damage.

County Officials Observe Holiday

All departments of the superior court, the board of supervisors and the county clerk's office will be closed today in recognition of Columbus Day, a legal holiday.

The supervisors will meet on Thursday, at which time several important matters are to be brought up.

Says Husband Tore Off His Shirt and Said She Did It

Because Philip H. Weston tore off his own shirt, scratched his own face and then called the police in an attempt to have his wife arrested, Mrs. Blanche H. Weston yesterday brought suit for divorce in the superior court.

According to the complaint which was filed by F. W. Becker and Glenn M. DeVore, Weston came home in an intoxicated condition and accused his wife of being drunk. After she had denied the accusation, it stated, the acts cited above took place.

Weston is employed as a waiter in a local cafe. The couple were married in Seattle on May 4, 1934, and separated August 29, 1934.

HILL PLANS TO ATTEND MANY RATE HEARINGS

Valley Shippers Will Be Affected, He Declares
Opposition To Several Applications To Be Presented

Numerous hearings that are to affect the San Joaquin valley in general upon application for changes in freight and class rates of the railroads have been set, and Manager Frank Hill of the Fresno Traffic Association is planning a schedule for next month which will enable him to be present at each hearing to protect the interests of Fresno county shippers. Hill outlined his program at a meeting of the association Monday noon.

The various hearings have placed a heavy load on Manager Hill in gathering data to present in opposition to the applications. In most of the cases, attempts are being made to reduce rates to the ports, leaving the same rates with intermediate points, which would place a grave hardship on interior towns.

A hearing on the application of the railroads for the re-establishment of the old basis of low rates to the ports than to the interior points has been set for November 11 at Chicago, to be followed by similar hearings before the Interstate Commerce Commission at other cities throughout the nation. The hearings will be conducted for a period of two months.

Other hearings will be held in Denver on November 21; Helena, November 23; Salt Lake, November 25; Boise, November 26; Spokane, December 1; Portland, December 3; San Francisco, December 5; Reno, December 12; Phoenix, December 13; Atlanta, January 9; New Orleans, January 11.

In the application, sixty-two items are affected. They include twenty-three covering iron and steel articles, eleven covering paper and articles made from paper, and twenty-eight articles of miscellaneous character.

Will Protect Shipper.
Hill declared yesterday that his position would be to protect the shipper in all the hearings, and that he would be present to represent them at one or more of the above scheduled conferences. The Traffic Association was organized for this purpose, he declared.

Furthermore, at the meeting on Monday, Hill brought up the question of an application recently made by the Stockton Traffic Association for a readjustment of class rates from San Francisco to all valley points, alleging that the rates from San Francisco to San Joaquin valley points were not adjusted to the right basis.

According to Hill, this application if granted by the State Railroad Commission would raise rates from the Bay cities to valley points south of Stockton, but would not affect Stockton's rates whatsoever. It will affect all class rates, which take as practically all commodities shipped.

The hearing will be held in Stockton on November 16. Hill will attend the session and will oppose the application on the claim that the present rates are fair and equitable to all rather than being discriminatory. Stockton will not alone confine her objections to those contained in the application, but will further allege that the rates from other points outside of the valley to valley points are unfair and preferential to other than Stockton's interests, Hill said. If this is done, it will necessitate further hearings throughout the state.

Another hearing that Hill will attend, and which he discussed at length at the directors' meeting, was that of the Interstate Commerce Commission in San Francisco on November 21. The application of the railroads is to make an adjustment of rates on freight classifications between San Francisco and Bay points and Los Angeles; between San Francisco and Bay points and Seattle, Portland and Tacoma, and between Los Angeles and Seattle, Portland and Tacoma.

This is likewise an attempt to reduce rates between ports and to leave the interior points with rates mandating as they are. Hill said. This would make rates from port to port higher.

SUIT FILED.
Suit to secure the payment of a $1000 note was filed yesterday in the superior court by George Avedisian against K. E. Boyajian and A. K. Masarian. The note was given with a rain crop as security. It is alleged that the defendants have refused to make payment.

than from port to interior towns, which would be highly unfair, according to Hill. As an example, the rate between San Francisco and Los Angeles would be less than the rate between San Francisco and Fresno or between Los Angeles and Fresno, though the distance between points is greater.
